

Hunter College High School/ Class of '86 Reunion 2006

Twenty years! The time is nigh to return to the bosom of your childhood peers. Time for the experiences that have shaped your subsequent years to redound to their collective wisdom. There is no better audience than the class of '86 for the stories you have to share. Join the gathering! We've been going in and out of style / but we're guaranteed to raise a smile.

CLASS of 1986 Saturday, June 3

FAMILIES (12:00 - 4:00 PM) Picnic in Central Park, the urban oasis of the Joyful Elite. Meet at noon on the Dene Lawn (E68-69), opposite the hilltop shelter on Dene Rock. Enter from Fifth Avenue at 69th or 67th Street, just north of the children's zoo. Bring a blanket and food from home or grab some grub from the many Lexington Avenue delicatessens near Hunter College. Park pushcarts sell ice cream and hot dogs. Bathrooms are located in nearby comfort stations.

ADULTS (8:00 - midnight) Spend a night in Little Italy. Buy a round of drinks at Onieal's Grand Street (at Centre Market) and you'll lose the anxiety about seeing all your old classmates. To get here by train, take the J, M, N, Q, R, W, Z or 6 to Canal Street; walk 2 blocks north to Grand and then head east to 174. Stay all night.

GENERAL..... Sunday, June 4

(9:30 - 3:00 PM) The general reunion happens at the high school and includes continental breakfast, general assembly, individual class gatherings and buffet luncheon. Cost: $25 for dues-paid members, $30 in advance for non-dues paid members and $35 at the door. Guests are the same price and children are free.

If you haven't already joined the online group for our class, then head to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/hchs86> and get the advance reunion buzz. That's where you'll find out What's What and begin preparing for the upcoming Virtual Reunion.

To RSVP or find answers, contact your class coordinator by e-mail at Brian@BrianChavez.com or dial the phone number (917) 566-5016.

Excelsior!
